Article 1- "What is a worldview and why is it important to me?"

Has your answers to either of the first two questions changed after reading article 1?

Your reply goes here.

Do you believe in absolute truth? Is there more than one way/religion to understanding absolute truth about God and the meaning of life?

Your reply goes here.

Do you believe that humans have free will in their decisions, or are they entirely a product of their personal environment, circumstances, upbringing, etc.

Your reply goes here.

Are things such as true love, beauty, and justice really possible, or are those values totally determined by cultural beliefs and norms?

Your reply goes here.

STEP 2

Have your answers to any of the last questions changed after reading article 2?

Your reply goes here.

So far in what you've read and in what you've experienced in life, does it seem odd or offensive to see Jesus Christ as the foundation for life and meaning?

Your reply goes here.

STEP 3

Have your answers to either of the last two questions changed after reading article 3?

Your reply goes here.

Now that you've read all of the articles, how has your view of meaning, ethics and your own worldview changed? What questions or comments do you have about what you've read?

Your conclusion goes here.
